20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The purpose of the Board is outlined in Section 1014(a) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which states that the Board shall "advise and consult with the Bureau in the exercise of its functions under the Federal consumer financial laws" and "provide information on emerging practices in the consumer financial products or services industry, including regional trends, concerns, and other relevant information." To carry out the Board's purpose, the scope of its activities shall include providing information, analysis, and recommendations to the Bureau. The Board will generally serve as a vehicle for market intelligence and expertise for the Bureau. Its objectives will include identifying and assessing the impact on consumers and other market participants of new, emerging, and changing products, practices, or services.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Section 1014(b) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act provides: "In appointing the members of the Consumer Advisory Board, the Director shall seek to assemble experts in: consumer protection, financial services, community development, fair lending and civil rights, and consumer financial products or services and representatives of depository institutions that primarily serve underserved communities, and representatives of depository institutions that primarily serve underserved communities, and representatives of communities that have been significantly impacted by higher-priced mortgage loans, and seek representation of the interests of covered persons and consumers, without regard to party affiliation." Equal opportunity practices in accordance with the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (BCFP) policies shall be followed in all appointments to the Board.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated Number of Meetings per Year - 3.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Board will advise and consult with the Director and the Bureau on matters related to the Bureau's functions under the Dodd- Frank Act, Federal consumer financial laws, and to provide information on emerging practices in the consumer financial products or services industry, including regional trends, concerns, and other relevant information.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings? Meetings are open to the public unless the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection agency head determines that items on the planned agenda are subject to the closed meeting provisions of the Government in Sunshine Act, 5 U.S.C.§552b(c). In the event of closed or partially-closed meetings, the committee will issue an annual report setting forth a summary of its activities and such related matters as would be informative to the public.

21. Remarks

On December 18, 2015, Section 1013 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (12 U.S.C. 5493) was amended to ensure applicability of the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA") to the Bureau's advisory committees. This committee was re-established in accordance with FACA provisions. On June 6, 2018, as part of the Bureau's Stakeholder Outreach and Engagement initiative, the Bureau decided to re-constitute the advisory committees with smaller membership. This committee was re-constituted on September 7, 2018 with new committee members.

Number of Recommendations Comments

The Consumer Advisory Board serves as an effective vehicle for on-the-ground perspectives and policymaking feedback for the BCFP's enforcement, fair lending, supervision, research, market monitoring, rulemaking, and consumer education and engagement functions. In FY2018 the Board did not convey any formal recommendations to the BCFP, but members provided information, analysis, and recommendations to the Bureau's staff based on their unique perspectives.
